

Calendar of Events

- November 17, 2020 Counselor Training - Unique Student Situations and the FAFSA
09:30 AM - 11:00 AM CST
A common phrase used frequently in financial aid is it depends. Often times there is no easy or black and white answer to the situations our students face. During this session, you can bring your unique student situations to our panel of financial aid experts and get assistance with how to advise students and families as they navigate the FAFSA application process.
- November 18, 2020 Counselor Training - Unique Student Situations and the FAFSA
09:30 AM - 11:00 AM CST
A common phrase used frequently in financial aid is it depends. Often times there is no easy or black and white answer to the situations our students face. During this session, you can bring your unique student situations to our panel of financial aid experts and get assistance with how to advise students and families as they navigate the FAFSA application process.
- January 13, 2021 Counselor Training - Financial Literacy
09:30 AM - 11:00 AM CST
Paying for college can be complex. Many of the skills students need to plan and pay for college are life skills that can benefit students. This session will explore resources and strategies to assist you in teaching students some of these financial fundamentals as they prepare for college and life after high school. Personal Finance is an elective in high school but it is not an elective in life.
- February 16, 2021 Counselor Training - Financial Aid 102
09:30 AM - 11:00 AM CST
You've managed to successfully get students to complete their FAFSA applications... now what? This session will take a deeper look at what comes after the FAFSA is submitted. We'll go over how students can complete their financial aid files, various types of financial aid, and provide some examples of Aid Offers that your students will be receiving.
- April 7, 2021 KASFAA Spring Conference
- April 9, 2021 Hilton Garden Inn